New Chocolate Tour for Groups in Boston

Boston Chocolate Tours offers six different two-hour guided walking tours for groups of as many as 14. Participants sample a variety of treats from area chocolatiers, including L.A. Burdick in Harvard Square, ChocoLee in the South End, and Beacon Hill Chocolate. Private tours require a $500 minimum per group or $60 per person for a regular walking route. Groups of as many as 21 people can take the Ultimate Chocolate Tour, a minibus ride that stops at various sweets shops. For an after-work outing, the company offers its 90-minute dessert, chocolate, and wine tour of Faneuil Hall for $48 per person on Wednesday nights.
