New York-Based Drape Kings Expands to Washington

Drape Kings, the New York-based pipe and drape rental company, announced today the opening of a Washington area outpost.

The new office, in College Park, Maryland, will focus on serving local event planners, designers, and corporations. Drape Kings already has a local job lined up for June 28, when the company will provide pipe and drape for an International Special Events Society event at the Mandarin Oriental. According to vice president Kevin Goodrich, the new office will allow the company to expand its reach from Boston to Richmond, Virginia.

The New York Drape Kings outpost recently provided services for the annual Robin Hood benefit, as well as a Belvedere Vodka launch and TruTV's upfront presentation.
